Pentucket Bank Welcomes Two Community Leaders to Board of Directors

(Haverhill, MA) Jonathan H. Dowst, President and CEO of Pentucket Bank, along with the Board of Directors and Trustees, officially welcomed the following community leaders to the Board of Directors and Trustees at the 130th Annual Meeting of Pentucket Bank on March 10, 2022.

Noemi Custodia-Lora. Noemi is Vice President at Northern Essex Community College, where she runs Community Relations and the Lawrence Campus. Her professional interests include devising and employing strategies aimed at increasing access to education, especially for underrepresented minorities, adult learners, and immigrants. Noemi, a resident of Haverhill, holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Biology from the University of Puerto Rico and a Ph.D. in Physiology and Molecular Endocrinology from Boston University, and she did her Post-Doctoral Research Fellowship at Tufts Medical School. Noemi is a resident of Haverhill, MA.

Joel Olbricht. Joel is a Certified Public Accountant and a partner in the firm K2N Advisors & CPAs in Windham. His professional interests include leadership, income and estate planning, business management and decision making, strategic planning, wealth creation, marketing, and technology planning. His affiliations and board positions include the Board of Directors of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, the Alexander Eastman Foundation, the New Hampshire Estate Planning Council, the New Hampshire Society of CPAs, and the Derry 21st Century Learning Community Corporation. Joel, who attended Abilene Christian University, spends personal time with family and volunteering for local non-profits. He enjoys photography, farming, and traveling the U.S. Joel is a resident of Deerfield, NH.
